The team

“The Dinner Ladies London team are famous for their exceptional quality of service, attention to detail, professionalism and personality. When planning an event with Dinner Ladies you can rest assured that you are in the best possible hands”

Who we work with

Working closely with London's leading brands, we design tailored menus and experiences with our impressive food and drink specialist knowledge, helping to create their vision for a successful event.

Weddings

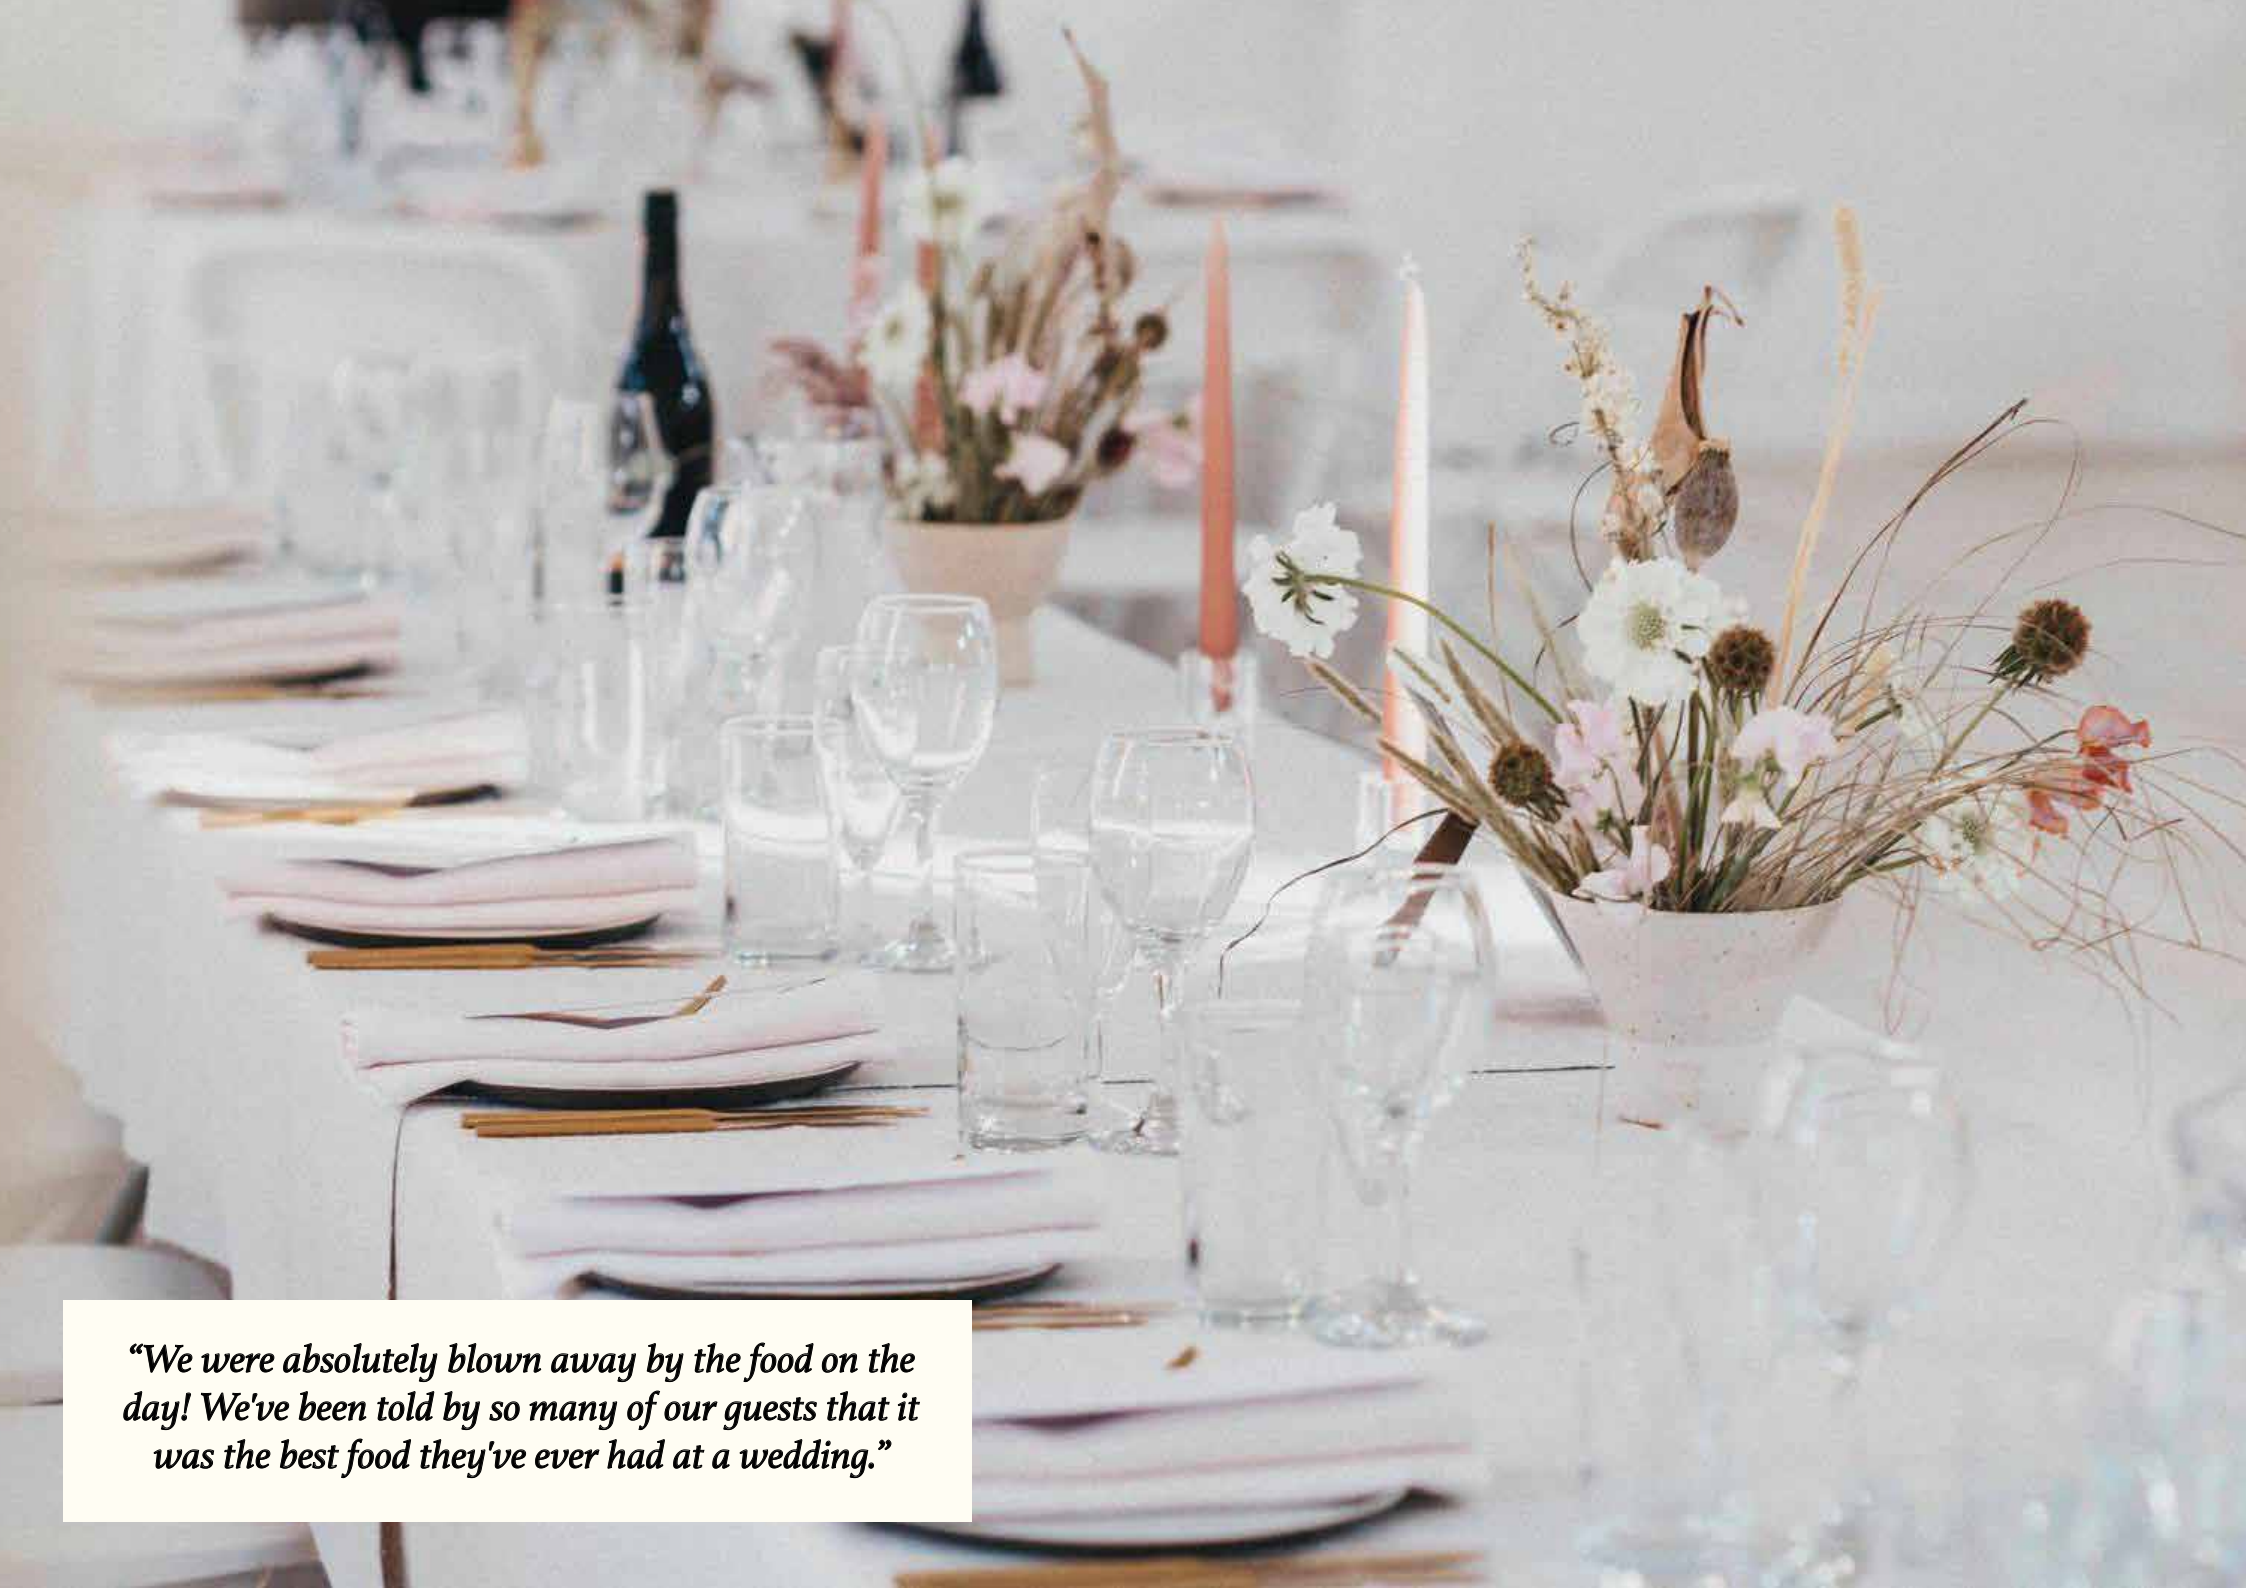

A Dinner Ladies wedding reflects your personality.

The team works tirelessly on a unique and memorable concept to make your ideas come to life.

At the helm is the food, which will certainly impress your guests.

"I couldn't recommend them enough - from the initial conversation with them they were helpful and went out of their way to ensure our wedding food was bespoke to us, as well as being utterly delicious. The food was really 5 star, and everyone at our wedding commented on how amazing it was. I would whole heartedly recommend them to anyone planning an event or wedding!"

"We were absolutely blown away by the food on the day! We've been told by so many of our guests that it was the best food they've ever had at a wedding."

Memorable Parties

We design tailor-made menus to create unique dining experiences as well as intimate and memorable evenings.

We orchestrate large scale events from beginning to end, including professional staff, striking hireware, exclusive venues and curated interior and table design.

We are renowned for our diversely cultured, fun and intriguing supper clubs.

*"I was very impressed indeed with the professionalism of the whole event.
The staff were friendly and many other restaurants could learn from them."*

Creative Catering

During the pandemic we launched virtual cooking experiences for our clients, producing full online events including ingredients gift boxes posted nationwide.
