London

1st – 19th December 2021

The Curling Club

Celebrate the festive season in style with friends, colleagues, and loved ones at The Curling Club this December as Lockdown becomes a distant memory.

Situated on the banks of the River Thames, this immersive, alpine themed, curling infused pop-up is the perfect way to reconnect and we want you to be a part of it.

Combining a short, fast form of curling with delicious cocktails, flavoursome street food, live music, flamboyant entertainment and much much more, The Curling Club is the perfect answer to team building, networking and celebrating your end of year in style.

Why the Curling Club?

Something fun, festive and wholly different for you, your friends and colleagues to be a part of

An active way of boosting morale and reconnecting with colleagues, clients and/or business networks

Christmas festival meets competitive socialising

An incredible event space situated in the heart of London

Perfect alternative to traditional team-bonding activities

Curling is a simple game, requires no power and is accessible to all

It's a celebration of Christmas like no other event in London

A proportion of your booking will go towards our chosen charity partner, The Youth Sport Trust

COVID secure venue

Large open air space

67% of staff are looking forward to connecting with colleagues when returning to the office

Never did we think curling would capture the imagination of so many people in our company but needless to say it did!

70% of workers are looking forward to going back into the office in June

Curling was the ultimate way to bring our company together at Christmas
