Festive cheer and celebrations are brought to life at The View

The Royal College of Surgeons of England's brand-new events and hospitality space The View kicks off the festive party season with a bang this Christmas.

Say goodbye to traditions and hello to the new, with the introduction of beautiful festive florals in the form of a sustainable botanical display.

The View, a large versatile space, lends itself to both a festive seated dinner for up to 180 guests or a more information standing reception for up to 300 guests.
